PLANTATION,

one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

LAND FOR SALE.

THE undersigned, as Executor of Samuel W. Branch, deceased, will offer at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the First Monday in November next, the tract of Land belonging to the estate of the said Samuel W. Branch, on which the said Samuel W. Branch resided at the time of his death.

The said tract of Land is situated in Halifax county, North Carolina, about two miles east of Enfield, which is the nearest Depot. It contains twelve hundred acres, about two thirds of which are cleared and in cultivation. One hundred acres of the cultivated lands are low grounds of the finest quality. The upland has inexhaustable supplies of marl, of easy access, and is as well adapted to the growth of cotton as any upland plantation in the State. There is a good Dwelling-house, Gin-house, Still-house and out-houses on the Land, an Apple Orchard, in good bearing, sufficient to make ten barrels Brandy, and altogether the plantation is one of the most desirable in the State.

At least three thousand dollars will be required in cash. A credit of one, two and three years will be allowed on the remainder of the purchase money, which must be unexceptionably secured by personal security, or the purchaser may pay all cash at his option. The title, which is indisputable, will be retained until the purchase money is paid. Persons who may desire to purchase can have an opportunity of riding over the plantation by calling at the dwelling. Possession will be given on the 1st of January next.

BENJ. F. GARY,

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	632,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,478,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000.

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

It shall continue to be a correct and truthful newspaper, carefully compiling what can be interesting or of utility to the people of North Carolina.

The price of single subscriptions to the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Sentinel will remain as heretofore, but, in order to extend our circulation, we will hereafter send it to clubs of subscribers at the following rates:

By this arrangement the Daily for six months will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, only $4 each; the Semi-weekly, will cost each member of a club, of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $2 each; and the weekly will cost each member of a club of four or more subscribers, for six months, only $1 each, and half that price for three months. Subscriptions at club rates will not be taken for a longer term than six months. The cash must always accompany the order.

Ought the Southern States to Adopt the Constitutional (Howard) Amendment?

This is a question of the highest import.—The early reconciliation of the Southern States with the Federal Government and a really restored Union is one of the highest political objects to be sought by them, bearing upon the future well being of the Southern people. Whatever they can do, which is not in direct conflict with the personal honor of our people and their future peace and quiet; whatever sacrifices they can make consistently with their honor, their devotion to the Constitution of their fathers and their future existence as a people, we are free to admit they ought to do and make; and we would be the last to throw any impediment whatever in the way of their willingly and promptly doing it.

Let it first be premised that the Southern States have never, in any form, proposed any terms, claimed any rights, or refused to accept any terms offered them precedent to their full recognition or reconciliation. They have never presumed to be parties, nor have they been asked to be parties, in any manner, in fixing upon any terms of settlement in order to peace and entire reconciliation. It is proposed by the Congress, in advance of any proposition to admit the Senators and Representatives of the eleven Southern States engaged in the "rebellion," to amend the Constitution in several important particulars, and the amendment proposed will be submitted to all the Legislatures of the several States. This Congressional (Howard) amendment is, however, treated by its friends and supporters as a direct proposition on the part of the Congress,—as a preliminary and precedent to the reception of the representatives of the Southern States. This is claimed after the positive rejection, by a large majority of the Congress, of a resolution directly proposing it, and in the absence of any reliable assurance that it will, in any sense, be a preliminary to full reconciliation. The action in the case of Tennessee is the only ground for such a supposition. But her present status offers no hope to the other ten States.

The Southern people are urged to adopt it, first, because it is said the President's policy is a failure; secondly, because it is assumed the amendment will certainly be adopted by the Northern States; thirdly, that it is essentially the same as the plan of the President, and fourthly, because if the Southern States reject it they may expect less reasonable terms. In this view the New York Herald, Raleigh Standard, and others concur. On a review of the article of the Watchman, edited by Rev. Dr. Deems, we find that it only concurs fully in the first two reasons assigned by others,—that the Watchman does not warmly urge its adoption, but presents such views as indicate that it thinks it would, perhaps, be better for the South to adopt it. We may, therefore, on yesterday, have hastily and unwittingly done injustice to our friend, Dr. Deems, and his able and excellent paper, the Watchman. If so, we assure him that it was foreign to our purpose or design.

But admitting that the President's plan is a failure, and that the Howard amendment will be adopted by all the Northern States and by enough of the Southern States to secure the amendment, or admitting that it may fail and thus bring upon the South greater humiliation and ruin, still, even in that case, we cannot see the force of the reasons which impel those who favor it as "the best we can get," to urge the Southern States to adopt it. Our reasons for this opinion are briefly these:

First, The Howard amendment is not presented to the Southern States as a condition of reconciliation with the Union and the admission of their representatives. If it were, still the question would arise, can the Southern people voluntarily do what they conceive to be wrong and an evil thing, that good may come, or in order to the avoidance of a greater evil? Where the choice is plain between two evils, perhaps duty to future generations might require the choice of the least. But are we positively certain that this amendment to the Constitution is the lesser one? Those who urge its adoption insist that the terms are nearly similar to those of the President—that there is no great harm in it, nothing that we will not be obliged to come to at last, and that the sooner we come to it the sooner our difficulties will end, and we can then start on the road to prosperity. But all this is assumption. Who knows that it will sooner end our difficulties? May it not comparatively begin our troubles? Who can see any prospect of prosperity to the South in such an amendment of the organic law? What Northern man would think of coming South with his capital, with such a prospect before him? What man that looks to the future would seek a home here, with a representation in Congress which could never be a check on the growing North, or a representation based upon negro suffrage, to which must soon follow negro equality in all respects, and with a large proportion of the intelligence and experience of the South disfranchised? Is it not the most certain step to depopulate the South of white labor and intelligence? Would not every white man, who could do so, speedily escape to some land free from a colored population, where he might enjoy a white man's chance?

Secondly, As the amendment is not presented to the South as a preliminary to, or a condition of reconciliation, but is a clear proposition presented to all the States upon its intrinsic merits, it is only in this light they can properly view it, and either accept or reject it as they may judge of its intrinsic qualities.

The proposition itself concedes two very important admitted facts by the Congress. First, that there is yet such a thing as a Constitution of the United States. And secondly, that the States, to whom it is submitted, are still States of the Union under that Constitution. If the Congress had embodied the doctrines of the amendment in the form of bills or laws of Congress, their incompatibility with the Constitution, as it is, would have been apparent to every one. Is the amendment less so in its present form? Can it be reconciled with the other parts of that instrument, without further amendment?

The first and fifth sections, as we have already shown, contain the germ of consolidation and the destruction of the efficiency, if not the existence, of the State governments. The friends of the amendment glide over the first section as if it contained nothing of a practical character. Mr. Holden thinks there is no harm in it. The New York Herald regards it as simply asserting what all are ready to admit. The Watchman thinks it deals in merely innocent generalities. But are these things so? It defines first who are citizens of the United States, and of the States, and bases the qualifications of a citizen solely upon being born in, or being naturalized and under the jurisdiction of, the United States and residence in the States. It secondly forbids the States from abridging the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States. The fifth section empowers Congress to adopt any appropriate legislation necessary to carry out that amendment. Suppose Congress were to declare, if this amendment pass, that the elective franchise was a privilege of which no male citizen of the United States, 21 years of age, should be deprived? Would there be anything in the Constitution to make such a declaration, or law in accordance therewith, unconstitutional? Could not Congress, if it chose to do so, pass a law endowing all male negroes 21 years of age with the elective franchise? What could hinder? But it is said that if, at the adoption of that amendment, negroes have no such privilege, being without it, it could not be abridged. Of course the States could not. But the amendment fixing the status of all the citizens of the States, it would be within the province of Congress to define what citizenship is, and with what it should be endowed. Thus, the practical working of the first section leads to negro suffrage. Moreover, it empowers Congress to organize such Courts and Bureaus in the States as that body might deem proper, transferring the jurisdiction over a particular class of persons and cases in the States from the State Courts to those of a Federal character, where said class would be entitled not only to sue and be sued, and to testify, but where they might be allowed to be jurors, lawyers and judges, to the great damage and injury of the other race. What evil, then, we ask, could Congress fasten upon the Southern States which is not constitutionally and legally provided for in this amendment? Would it be as bad, as dangerous to Southern peace and honor and prosperity, to bear what Congress might impose upon us without the support of the Constitution as with it? Is there not more reason to hope for a change of a bad law, than to change a bad Constitution? We put these questions soberly to the friends or apologists for this amendment.

The second section, it is said, proposes a change in the representation which is just and right in the abstract, and which equalizes representation. This is not true in fact. If all the States were to divide with us the colored population pro rata, then it would be just and equal. Not otherwise. Every Northern State would doubtless choose its representation according to population. The South could not do so, at present at least, without certain ruin, until our entire population became fit to vote. The South, on the other hand, would choose a meagre representation, rather than submit to negro suffrage. Would that be equal? Would that be right, either in the abstract or concrete? Besides, in the present condition of the colored race, is it not just and right that they should be represented, just as women and children are who do not vote? What injustice could it be to the North to have all our population represented as well as theirs? The North might safely and with propriety give suffrage to the blacks; the South could not. Yet the North refuses to grant universal suffrage to the blacks there, but the Radicals demand it of the South.

The third section demands of the Southern people to vote for the exclusion from office of themselves, and their friends and neighbors, who are no more guilty, if as guilty as they are themselves. Any reasonable, wise and just punishment for their political sins the South would quietly bear, when convicted of crime before a proper judicial tribunal. If the North forces this section upon us we will submit; but it seems to us no Southern man of honor can vote for it. It convicts and punishes, by an ex post facto process, the innocent as well as the guilty. It obliges the South to accept men for office, and as Legislators, who are not of their choice, and in many cases unfit. It would seriously interfere with the proper administration of justice and the enforcement of State and national law, because of the unfitness and inexperience of the executors of the law. It punishes many, (for it is designed as a punishment for assumed treason,) who have already been pardoned for the offence, thus nullifying the power of the Executive prerogative and vitiating its design.

The fourth is already provided for, yet no objection would be made to it as a simple amendment by itself.

But it is said, whether the South accept it or not, it will be forced upon us, and much worse, whether we will or not. If so, ought a Southern man to be particeps criminis in inflicting the punishment? Congress may pass laws afflicting us without our consent, but laws are changeable and often easily rescinded, but a constitutional amendment passed by Southern votes may stand for all time, and we shall become parties to measures, which may result in the overthrow and destruction of the Republic, and the extinction or removal of one or both of the races in the South.

We ask Mr. Holden, or any one else, to show the fallacy or the error of the view above taken.

An Excellent Example.

We publish, in another column, from the Weldon State, an account of the manner in which the differences in Northampton County, arising out of the conflicting claims of the various candidates for legislative honors, have been compromised. We cannot too warmly express our commendation of the conciliatory and patriotic course of the gentlemen interested, or our gratification at the determination of the people to avoid strife and division at this momentous time. We would that similar action might be had in all counties where there is a prospect of contention or competition, among candidates holding views in accord upon the paramount national issue before the people, by which the success of any of them, who are sound on that issue, might be jeopardied. It is not yet too late to attend to this matter. In all cases, where a similar state of things to that in Northampton exists, let the people take the matter into their hands and adopt such steps as will secure a proper representation of the will of the majority. By such a course, we can probably present, in the next Legislature, an almost unbroken phalanx in favor of President Johnson's policy as against the programme of Radicalism.

We know that one of our worthiest public men has been driven from the stump and silenced by armed ex-rebels.—Raleigh Standard.

Why did not the Standard give the time, and place, and name of "one of our worthiest public men," so that an investigation might be had and the true state of the case ascertained. Does the Standard allude to Mr. Calvin J. Cowles, of Wilkes, a candidate for the State Senate in this District? We learn that at "Weatherman's," in the upper end of Iredell, last week, the candidates who were present, (including Mr. Cowles,) before speaking, entered into an agreement not to occupy, each, more than a half hour, so that all might have a chance; and that when Mr. Cowles' turn came, he exceeded the time, and, when called upon, refused to give way—but was not "driven from the stump," as the Standard states. He continued to speak, while Dr. Parks occupied another stand, and that was all.

We presume that there is just about as much truth in the statement which the Standard has made, that the "American flag was pulled down by armed ex-rebels at Jefferson, Ashe county."—Statesville American.

We have no doubt that the foregoing is a perfectly correct statement of the facts. It will be remembered that, at the time the Standard made the charge that "one of our worthiest Union men had been driven from the stump," &c., we challenged that paper to name the locality and to give the circumstances. This it failed to do, of course.

It is thus that mountains are manufactured out of mole-hills, and the most shameless misrepresentations are made in order to prejudice the sentiment of the North against our people. Those who indulge in them seem utterly lost to all considerations of fairness, generosity and decency.

A loyal weekly paper is to be established at Greensborough, N. C., by a publishing company composed of Southern Unionists. The paper is to be controlled by and published in the interest of the Union men of North Carolina, and hence deserves the support of true and loyal men everywhere.—New York Tribune.

Tourgee, we suppose, is to be the Editor. If mendacity is any qualification for the position, this "pond-dragger" will run a brilliant editorial career.

The Newbern Times speaks of the New York Times as "that sterling administration journal." What administration did Raymond support either in Congress or in the Times? Certainly not Andrew Johnson's. The Newbern Times has given the President the same sort of support precisely: one word for and ten against.

The Memphis Avalanche has what is called a "scathing letter," addressed to Brownlow. The author might as well address a "scathing letter" to his Satanic majesty, the devil, for all the good it will do.—Lynchburg Republican.

Stand Firm!

While we write these lines, the elections in the great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana are progressing amid great excitement.—The telegraph, to-night, will doubtless bring sufficient intelligence to enable us to determine how they have gone. While we are not entirely without hope, based upon such information as we have received, and upon the tone of the Conservative press of the North, especially within the past fortnight, that the friends of President Johnson and of Constitutional Union may succeed in making considerable inroads upon the Radical strength, we owe it to candor to admit that the indications, generally, are adverse to such a result. The Northern mind has been so thoroughly poisoned by the most foul slanders upon the people of the South, and has been so excited by appeals to passion and prejudice, that but little room has been left for the exercise of reason and the effect of sound argument. Money has been used without stint by the desperate men in power, who recognize their full and final ruin in deprivation of office.

Whatever be the result of these elections, we caution and beg our people to stand firm. If it is propitious, they will be encouraged to go on in their efforts to maintain the supremacy of Constitutional liberty. If it is adverse, let them not falter or be discouraged in the same good work. Let them go to the polls on the 18th of October, and record their determination not to be the instruments of their own humiliation and destruction, if they are to come. Let them show, by as nearly unanimous an endorsement as possible, their gratitude to and confidence in Andrew Johnson, who, if defeated, will be so because of his justice and magnanimity to us! Let us not cowardly desert and abandon him, simply because his political sky may be overshadowed!

(Correspondence of the Richmond Examiner.)

The Public Debt---The Radical Leaders and the Secretary of the Treasury---A Modified Tariff to be Adopted---Gold Speculators---The Gold Supply---Health of Secretary Seward---The President and his Policy---Congress and the Unrepresented States---Course Urged upon the President.

WASHINGTON, October 6, 1866.

Under Mr. McCulloch's wise and able administration of the Treasury, the national debt is decreasing, and the public credit is sustained. The statement published to-day shows that the debt was diminished during the last month by the sum of about twenty-five millions. If the currency does not appreciate in value, it is because Congress refused to follow the excellent recommendations of the Secretary at the late session. They thwarted all his efforts, and rejected all his plans for either funding the floating debt, or for a reduction of the volume of the paper currency. They will probably do the same at the next session, for it is well understood that the Radical leaders, like Mr. Stevens, will resist any proposition for the withdrawal of any portion of the currency.—Any diminution in the volume of paper would be prejudicial to demands for an increase of the tariff of duties.

The Secretary is proposing a modified tariff, which will reduce duties, and still afford an adequate revenue. Congress will probably have the wisdom to adopt it. The Radicals are pledged to carry the bill of the last session, which was postponed in the Senate till December, merely because it was apprehended that it would cause the loss of some votes in the Northwest, at the fall elections.

Brokers and speculators importune the Secretary to sell the surplus gold in the treasury. There is a way already found to absorb all that he can throw upon the market, and hold it up for a rise. Besides, it is shown by real experience that the temporary fall of gold does not cause any appreciation of the currency. The volume of paper money regulates prices of commodities, and so long as this remains undiminished the fall in gold will not reduce prices.—The speculations in gold depend upon adventitious circumstances, which cannot be controlled by the Secretary. The treasury will have only eighty millions in gold on the 1st of January. Fifty millions must be reserved. The surplus of thirty millions may be properly used for the reduction of gold interest bearing bonds. But the retention and accumulation of gold bolsters up the public credit, and will seem to indicate the practicability of a return, at some day, to a specie standard. When the Secretary shall present his annual report to Congress upon the state of the Treasury, with his recommendation in relation to the debt and the currency, he will present his views of the proper disposition of surplus gold in future.

Mr. Seward's health is very precarious. The return of his recent malady causes some doubt whether he will long retain sufficient strength to discharge his duties.

Though the President has formed and announced his fixed purpose to adhere to the policy which he has heretofore avowed, there are politicians who urge him to accept the Congress plan, though they know that it would not be a final adjustment. They represent to the President that by accepting the Congress proposition for amending the constitution he will escape impeachment, effect a restoration of the Union, enjoy a smooth term of office, and, perhaps put himself in the way of re-election. After this session, they say, it will be too late for any accommodation between Congress and the non-represented States upon terms short of compelling negro suffrage. This appeal will have no effect upon the President. It is quite as probable that his own policy will be ultimately adopted, as that of Congress, though, for a year or two to come, he and Congress may remain, as they are—at a dead halt. KAPPA.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes:

"There is good reason for believing that at the grand Provincial Council of the Roman Catholic Church, which is about to assemble in Baltimore, an effort will be made to extend a formal invitation to the Pope to make the United States his home, in the event of such a turn in political affairs in Italy as would render his stay in Rome undesirable. It is no secret that the highest ecclesiastical authority in this diocese is favorable to the proposition, and his views, no doubt, will influence others."

An Irish sailor, as he was riding, made a pause; the horse, in beating off the flies, caught his hind foot in the stirrup. The sailor, observing it, exclaimed: "How now, Dobbin, if you are going to get on, I'll get off; for by the powers, I will not ride double with you."

A little boy, about six years old, was using his slate and pencil on the Sunday, when his father, who was a minister, entered and said: "My son, I prefer that you should not use your slate on the Lord's day." "I am drawing meeting houses, father," was the prompt reply.

Northampton County.

Our neighbors over the river have decided it to be best not to have any struggle in the approaching election for the Legislature. We think they have acted wisely.

Pursuant to appointment, the candidates for the Legislature, Mr. Richard Garner, for the Senate, and Messrs. James Newsom and Emory Martin, for the Commons, on one side, and General Thomas J. Person, for the Senate, and Capt. Robert Peebles, for the Commons, on the other, met at Seaboard, on Thursday, for the purpose of opening the campaign. There appearing an unwillingness, however, on the part of both candidates and people, that there should be any division or strife among them in the present condition of the country, a compromise was effected by which each candidate was required to withdraw his name. They very cheerfully complied with the terms, and thereupon the people present formed themselves into a meeting by requesting Capt. J. M. S. Rogers to act as Chairman. After some consultation, a motion was unanimously accepted requesting the two candidates for the Senate to select each four persons from different portions of the County, and the eight thus selected to choose a ninth, all to constitute a committee on nominations. This committee is to meet at Jackson on Saturday, the 6th inst., and nominate three candidates who shall have no opposition, by agreement of both parties.

By the terms of the compromise the candidates accepting the nomination are pledged to stand on the following platform:

That we approve the re-construction policy of Andrew Johnson, the President of the United States, and that we heartily support the principles of his administration. That we are opposed to Radicals and radicalism, as hostile to the Union, to the Rights of the States, to the peace and honor of the country and to liberty itself.

That we endorse cordially the administration and policy of Jonathan Worth, Governor of North Carolina, and that we will cheerfully support him in the approaching election.

That we sincerely desire the peace, harmony, prosperity and honor of North Carolina, and of the whole Union, and that we deprecate and deplore all unnecessary agitation and strife in the country and earnestly wish to see all good and patriotic men, without regard to former party antecedents, united together to preserve and promote our rights and interests and the common good of the whole country. That with this view we will use all honorable means to allay controversy, division and discord among our people, and to secure to ourselves and our fellow-countrymen the blessings of peace, order and good government.—Weldon State.

A Sheriff Forced to Resign

(From the Montgomery Advertiser.)

The people of Calhoun county, in this State, may be congratulated on the extraordinary fact, that their Sheriff has been obliged to resign his office, because they are so lenient and forbearing towards each other, that the office does not "pay". We commend the example of the people of Calhoun to the Shylocks of other counties of the State who are crushing their neighbors.

In a card to his constituents the Sheriff of Calhoun sets forth the reasons that have impelled him to resign:

* * * *

In the first place when the election was over I was out of money. I set in on the prospect of the office, and have lived on the prospect over since; and from that time until now, I have not taken in fifty dollars of cost; my expenses all the time have been something, and I must say a good deal, which will hereafter be substantiated by my successors in office, if things do not change meterially, and they perform the duties of the office as I have tried to do. Under such unfortunate circumstances I have lived for one year, and lived as economically as any man could; but in spite of all my efforts I am dunned for money every day, and more debts coming due to be dunned on. I have not a respectable garment to wear—buying tobacco to chew, feeding my horse on hay only, and his feet tender for want of shoeing, and I not able to help it, what must I do?

I have used all my wit and strength to continue in the office and not give it up, but without success. I have offered it with entire proceeds to men if they would give me a home, so that I could go to work and raise some capital, but they refused. Then I have offered men all they could make if they would ride for me, and I be responsible for their acts, so that I could get all my papers executed, but all to no effect. By the time they learned the difference between a capias and a writ of dowder, they would find they were making nothing, and quit.

When I went into the office, I determined to make a good sheriff, and give satisfaction, but found it impossible to do so without money or assistance. And now I ask, what else could I do under these circumstances, but quit Sheriffing, go to work, try to make something to pay my debts, and prepare to marry before it is too late?

Respectfully, J. M. ANDERSON.

THE SENTINEL.

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 9, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

DEATH OF MAJ. J. H. HOPE.—We regret to learn, as we go to press, that intelligence has just been received of the death, in the Eastern part of the State, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health, of Maj. Jno. H. Hope, the proprietor of the Yarbrough House, in this City. His remains are expected here by the Northern train this afternoon.

SUPERIOR COURT.—This tribunal adjourned at a late hour last night. The Jury, in the case of the Hodges, after an able charge from the Judge and after remaining out but a short time, returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter as to Rufus Hodge and of acquittal as to James. Rufus was sentenced by his Honor to pay a fine of $1,000 and be imprisoned in the County jail for the space of twelve months. Judge Merrimon, as we think very properly, omitted the ordinary punishment of branding, as a barbarous practice.

We have previously noticed the speeches in this case of all the counsel, except Messrs. Phillips and Haywood, whose arguments were delivered after our last issue went to press. We have heard them spoken of, in terms of high praise, as learned, ingenious and masterly efforts.

Music on the Capitol square every afternoon, and spirited contests at base-ball by one or the other of the city clubs each evening, afford diversion and entertainment to our citizens. This is well. Anything is desirable, which is proper within itself, and which affords the mind some relief from the cares and troubles of every day life.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, October 7th and 8th.—John McRae, C. D. Ellis, Wilmington; J. C. Codner, Thomas Russell, Wayne; Jas. Holybtook, W. C. Mangum, W. J. Pool, Thos. Young, F. G. Foster, W. A. Rodes, Wake; T. C. Hooper, Fayetteville; W. B. Alegre, Richmond; N. S. Biggs, A. L. Orrell, New York; E. P. Barrington, Baltimore; R. R. Elliott, Springfield; P. A. Fowne, Mobile; N. M. McDonald, Cumberland; W. R. Cox, L. E. Heart, I. N. Harward, H. Bell, E. E. Harris, L. Adams, A. T. Sawyer, J. R. Williams, City.

APROPOS to a late suggestion in this paper that it would be well were oaths administered in our Courts with greater solemnity, a venerable friend calls our attention to the chapter on oaths that was incorporated in our Statutes of 1777, and probably long before. The chapter commences as follows:

"WHEREAS, lawful oaths, for the discovery of truth and establishing right, are necessary and highly conducive to the important end of good government; and being most solemn appeals to ALMIGHTY GOD, as the omniscient witness of truth, and the just and omnipotent avenger of falsehood, such oaths, therefore, ought to be taken and administered with the utmost solemnity."

DAVIE COUNTY.—In this county there are three candidates for the House of Commons, viz: Dr. V. C. Lanier, J. M. Clement, and Samuel Orrell. Orrell is endeavoring to get into the Legislature, says the Old North State, upon the issue of the repudiation of private debts.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.—We learn from a friend that the following Conservative ticket is out in Beaufort County: Col. W. H. Tripp for the Senate, and Messrs. Gorham and Henry Harding for the Commons. It is a good ticket and should be elected.

A friend in Rockingham County, in a business letter to us, speaks in the most cheering terms of the tobacco crop of that county. He is a large planter himself, and says that he has never had a better crop of tobacco.—Charlotte Democrat.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.—We learn from a gentleman living in the neighborhood of Scuffleton, Pitt county, that two very mysterious murders have been committed in that vicinity lately.—It seems that a man named Patrick was shot and killed on Tuesday night last, under what circumstances our informant failed to give us. On Wednesday night, a party of some dozen or more men went to the house of Jesse Hart, of the firm of Cannon & Hart, well known in this city, took him out of his house, and after carrying him a short distance, shot and left him. No clue has been obtained as to the parties committing either murder, but it is supposed that the last murder had some connection with the first one. A fine double barreled gun was left near where Hart's body lay, and may lead to the identification of some of the parties engaged in the affair.—Newbern Commercial.

The Constitutional Amendment.

The Standard and Newbern Times have been laboring very hard for some time past to convince the people of this State that the adoption of this amendment is the only possible means by which the representatives of the State will be admitted into Congress and reconstruction thoroughly accomplished. It seems now that if the people of North Carolina were so far to forget themselves as to vote for the adoption of this amendment, that even then the Radical Congress would still insist upon keeping them "out in the cold." The New York Express charges the Republicans with acting a double part on this question—some of them holding that the States will be admitted when this amendment is adopted, and others that they will not. The New York Times, in reply to the Albany Journal, says:

"All we have said on the subject has been that Congress is not pledged, by any direct action of its own, to the admission of the Southern States upon the adoption of the amendment—that on the contrary it rejected a bill thus to pledge it, and that a one of its most prominent leaders have declared their purpose to insist upon further conditions—especially upon negro suffrage as essential to admission.

* * * Congress has no right to compel any State to allow negroes, aliens, or any other class of its inhabitants to vote. This is among the powers expressly reserved to the State by the Constitution—and if that instrument is the supreme law of the land, Congress has no right to overrule the provision. The suffrage question must be left to State legislation."

This, says the Express, is well on paper,—but the principle is ignored by the Radical leaders of the Senate and House. These men mean nothing short of a coerced negro suffrage, and this is the question before the people.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Mr. Davis and Gen. Lee.

The Baltimore Transcript says: We are not surprised to hear that the gallant soldiers of the United States repudiate the ferocious spirit which calls for the execution of Jefferson Davis and General Lee. They naturally feel, as far as the latter is concerned, that their personal honor is involved in maintaining the terms of the parole accorded by Gen. Grant to Gen. Lee, and the conditions of which, on Gen. Lee's part, have been religiously observed. Besides all this, the pure and exalted character of Gen. Lee has won the respect and admiration of all brave and high minded men. It is well known that he engaged most reluctantly in the resistance to the general government, and that nothing but his sense of duty to his native State, to whom he believed that his supreme allegiance was due, and his natural sympathies with his own people in such a trial, prevailed upon him to respond to the earnest call which Virginia made for his assistance. A man of more generous and humane character, a christian gentleman of more spotless virtue, does not live upon the earth than Robert E. Lee, to whom General Grant has promised the protection of the government as long as he observes the terms of his parole, and who has never since that moment violated, either in letter or in spirit, the terms of that engagement.

Nor do we believe the soldiers of the United States desire to see the emaciated and almost dying prisoner at Fort Monroe swung from a gallows. The soldiers of the United States had no fears of Mr. Davis in the plenitude of his powers, and still less of him now, when he is as helpless and as harmless as a new born child. Moreover, like all brave men, they are magnanimous, and even compassionate to a fallen and suffering foe. Jefferson Davis was not the instigator of secession, and never, as an individual, played a game for empire, as General Butler charges. It was his fortune or misfortune to be elected President of the Confederate States, and he struggled for their independence, in that position, as every other Confederate did in the position in which he was placed. Born and bred in the school of State sovereignty, he believed, like the most of Southern men, and some of the leading Radicals, in the doctrine of secession, and acted upon conscientious conviction. Why devote such a man to the gallows as if he were a conscious rebel against an acknowledged Supreme authority? The Convention which framed the Constitution repeatedly refused to give the power of coercion to the general government, and the Supreme Court has decided that there was no such power. In the conflict of authorities, where two masters claimed the service, any citizen might be pardoned for serving that one which he had been educated to believe his rightful lord. No such difficulty can ever occur again, the war having finally settled the question, and neither justice nor expediency require extreme and sanguinary punishment.

Scandal in Washington High Life.

(Washington (September 24.) Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.)

This is a wicked world, I verily believe, and I am confirmed in that sage opinion by a scandalous affair, which I may refer to without any violation of good taste, since the matter is one of record.

Your readers will remember that a year or two ago there was a wedding here in high life (so called.) A young but prominent citizen of a Northern State, who counted his fortune by millions, was the happy bridegroom, and the daughter of a then cabinet minister was the bride. Rare jewels, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, were lavished on the fair lady, and such a wedding was never in the land since Commodore Bartlett's daughter married the Cuban negro Oviedo. Well, there have been many rumors about the couple just named, and the air has been thick with scandalous rumors. It was known the husband was a festive cuss, and that his thousands were spent in riotous living—wine, cards and other et ceteras. But only latterly did the wife seem to know or at least notice the delinquency of her lord, when it was presented to her in such a shape that there could be no doubt of his infidelity. And so she has brought action for divorce, and will of course get swindling damages; both of which she is entitled to, albeit the lady herself is very gay. The case will create a sensation when the names are given to the public.

Stooping to folly is a common thing in this world, especially in this hot-bed of corruption. A sad case has just been made known, where a young woman belonging to the most aristocratic circle of the Federal city has gone astray. She had not even been suspected until a few days ago, when her prolonged absence in New York, where she had gone on a visit, led to enquiry, and her parents to their horror ascertained she had voluntarily become the inmate of a fashionable brothel. No cause, other than that innate wickedness which the devil sometimes implants into poor, weak human nature, is assigned for the conduct of the woman who thus recklessly brings shame on the honored name of her family.

GEN. HOOD ON THE SITUATION.—A public reception was given to Gen. J. B. Hood, at the Masonic Institute in Henderson, Texas, on the 29 ult.

The editor of the Times, Col. J. M. Dodson, welcomed the battle-scarred hero of "an hundred fights" in an appropriate speech. The Times gives a synopsis of Gen. Hood's reply from which we extract:

"He counseled obedience to the laws of the country, and a strict compliance with all the terms imposed in the conditions of surrender. After this is done, he said preserve your manhood—do all that is right—do nothing that is not right. This is all that the victors can require—it is all that those who contributed most to overpower us will require. If the Radicals of the North require more than this, and we are compelled to submit, let us at least submit with dignity.

The General spoke at length of the degenerating effects following unsuccessful revolutions, giving lessons of warning from both ancient and modern history. This was the great danger that our people should guard against—chivalry should be nurtured and cherished with as much watchfulness and care as the lady bestows upon the most delicate and rarest plant. That chivalry and the consciousness of manhood may be kept alive with the people, and degeneracy avoided, he would encourage and patronize the tournaments that were becoming common in this portion of the country.

He spoke of the efforts of President Johnson to restore the country to tranquility, and to effect a real restoration of the Union, in terms of the highest commendation, and said he "prayed to God that he might succeed."

General Hood closed by exhorting the people to forget past differences, and to cease pining over what could not be helped—to go to work and restore the country to its former prosperity, to do their duty in all things, and leave the consequences in the hands of Him who cannot err."

In Roxbury, Mass., Saturday night, James Hughes quarreled with his brother Walter upon the subject of religion, and stabbed him so badly that his life is in danger.

Thanksgiving Proclamation by the President, &c.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.

The President has issued a proclamation recommending that Thursday, November 29th., be observed throughout the country as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to Almighty God, who has been pleased to vouchsafe to us, as a people, another year of that natural life, which is an indispensable consideration of peace, security and progress. That year, moreover, has been crowned with many peculiar blessings. The civil war that recently closed among us has not been anywhere re-opened. Foreign intervention has ceased to excite alarm or apprehension. Pestilence has been benignantly mitigated.—Domestic tranquility has improved. Sentiments of conciliation have prevailed, and loyalty and patriotism have been widely renewed. Our fields have yielded quite abundantly. Our mining industry has been richly rewarded, and we have been allowed to extend our Railroad system far into the interior recesses of the Country; while our commerce has resumed its customary activity in foreign seas. These great natural blessings demand a national acknowledgement.

The President also recommends that, on the same solemn occasion, the people do humbly and devoutly implore God to grant to our national counsels, and to our whole people, that true wisdom which alone can lead any nation into the ways of all good.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has submitted to the other Justices the question whether the Circuit Courts will be held this fall in the altered circuits by the Chief and Associate Judges and District Judges, or by the District Judges alone. This will be decided by the majority.

This matter grows out of the fact that the Circuit Court was not removed from Norfolk to Richmond, because it were found that the adjournment was not in accordance with the law of Congress.

Maryland Registry Laws—Excitement in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.

Randall, Attorney General of Maryland, has published an elaborate opinion, in opposition to that of Reverdy Johnson and J. H. B. Latrobe, maintaining that no citizen registered this year can vote at the municipal election on Wednesday. He says that only those who were registered last year can legally vote. If this be adopted, 15,000 persons will be prevented from voting, and Chapman will be elected Mayor.

Much political excitement prevailed to-day, and last night several fights occurred.

The Judges of election met in the Court House and resolved to adhere to the decision of Randall, and to receive no votes of newly registered voters in the municipal election.

EMIGRATION FROM NORTH CAROLINA.—The Baltimore Sun thus notices the arrival of the Emigrants who passed through Raleigh a day or two ago:

"Yesterday 430 emigrants from North Carolina, tempted by the inducements offered in the West, arrived in this city by the Bay line, on their way to the fertile lands of Indiana. The party, which is composed of all ages, numbers 330 whites and 100 colored. They quartered yesterday in the Camden depot, where they attracted considerable attention from their singularity of appearance and rustic dress. They are under the care of Mr. B. Coffin, and will leave this morning via the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for their western homes."

A Tennessee Radical killed his dog for barking at Old Brownlow. The dog would have died anyhow.

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

L. S. JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unsurpassed facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative notes, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.
